President Paul Clay

1. Paul Clay –
 - a. Martha, Lynn, and Brittany were among the top money raisers for Relay for Life [There were two teams working together – Dos Amigos I raised $20,847.67 and Dos Amigos II raised $9970.50. Martha's total was $1474.50, Lynn's was $1247.00, and Brittany's was 652.00 -- Carole]
 - b. Good turn-out for Marvin Chapel benefit which featured five singing groups, including the Knight Brothers.
 - c. Check out Stephanie's FaceBook postings
 - d. Don't forget the Division 9 Pig Roast and Council meeting
 - e. Board meetings back to regular schedule
 - f. Don't forget our Club picnic at Prospect Park on June 20th – let Angie know what you will be bringing – side dish or dessert (there will also be a sign-up sheet at the June 13th meeting)
2. Jeri Simon – Lions Club carnival sign-up sheet
3. Jim Jacobs – Training coming up for incoming Key Club officers
4. Norm Bogarde – Kiwanis Boutique – see samples and catalog – orders accepted

5. Angie Moore introduced the guest speaker, Kelly Frager, who began Etiquette for Everyday in 2008 after a stint in Human Resources and Training and a few years as a mother (attending school meetings, PTA meetings – she was PTA President, etc.) The focus of her business is on youth, but she is available for everyone. The Etiquette quiz she gave us was certainly an eye-opener!
6. 50/50 winner – Jim Jacobs
7. Happy Can – Sally Dodd
8. Thought for the Day – Glee Butts
9. Meeting adjourned – Be safe!
